

MEDIA RELEASE: 16th August 2009

Ladies and Gentlemen please start your engines.

Nullarbor Links – The World's Longest Golf Course, is officially completed and all holes are fully functional. Staff are all familiar with the concept. Score cards and Certificates are available from Ceduna and Kalgoorlie Visitor's Centres.

The Course has been tested by leading WA Professional, Len Thomas (scoring a creditable 78) and all is ready for the Official Opening, "The BP Australia Opening Tournament".

BP Australia are now our proud partners in the Official Opening Tournament.

The Opening Celebrations: will commence with a Dinner in Ceduna on Thursday 22nd October at 6.30pm.

The "BP Australia Opening Tournament" will commence the same day with a tee off at 3.30pm and will conclude in Kalgoorlie on Monday 26th.

The Closing Dinner will be at Kalgoorlie's Historical Town Hall on Tuesday 27th October 2009 commencing at 7-30pm.

Registrations for these three events are now being accepted at www.nullarborlinks.com

The project committee is interested in placing 5 media personnel on the official bus to be part of this historic event. Please register your interest by email.

The Eyre Highway Operators Association welcomes BP Australia into our family of Partners.
